Loving the rain. . . .Hasn't it been amazing seeing our yards and gardens that have been struggling to survive on the little rain we did get or the water provided by our garden hose on occasion turn into lush and green? The gardens are bearing the vegetables we wanted and the corn in the fields are way past "knee high by the 4th of July"!! The grass is growing fast and tall, seeming like it has already grown an inch just after we pass by with the mower!! Please do remember to keep after that beautiful yard, keeping it mowed and looking great!!! Get out and enjoy!
