The following is information on becoming an exhibitor and attached application

- Please retain a copy of this letter for information; otherwise any questions can be directed via email to: saturdaysonmain@gmail.com
- Acceptance of application, and confirmation of date(s) will be made via email, and will include any additional information you may need including a map to our event notating your set up location.
- Vendor fees are due 30 days before that event, and a reminder will be sent.
- The street is short and can be chaotic during set up; staff will be on hand between 3 - 6, and the closer to 6 the crazier it gets. ALL set up must done and vehicles moved by 6pm NO EXCEPTIONS.
- Exhibitors MUST accompany their exhibits for the duration of the event, rain or shine, unless staff tells you otherwise. If you choose to leave the event early you will NOT be invited back for future events.
- Booth space is limited; you will be provided a 10x10 area; tents are mandatory, and tent lighting is highly suggested. If you have a trailer or bus please notate on the application the dimensions, which way the front door faces and what end the hitch is on. Trailers and buses will pay an additional fee for the extended space.
- Electric and water are available for an additional fee to those who request either/both on their application.
- All display props including tent, tables, extension cords and water hoses are provided by exhibitor. If you require water or electric, please mark accordingly on the application for best location to meet your needs.
- Booth assignments will be made on a first come, first served basis.
- Return the completed application either via email or mail, all fees should be mailed to:
Friends of the Park    OR: Paypal: harrahfop@gmail.com (use friends & family option)
PO Box 352
